Generous Congregations
As we prepare for the 2017 Retired Ministers and Missionaries Offering (RMMO) on behalf of American Baptist Churches USA, please take a moment to reflect on our theme this year, “Generous Congregations.”

Helping those in need is one of the major themes of the Bible and of Jesus’ ministry. The prophet Isaiah reminds us, “But generous people plan to do what is generous, and they stand firm in their generosity.” (Isaiah 32:8 NLT) Generosity is central to our faith. As Christians, we are called to serve and care for others, and RMMO aligns with the collective spirit of love that inspires us all to honor the devotion of ministers and their families for their service to the church.

Since RMMO began in 1977, it has helped provide much needed thank you checks to retired ministers, missionaries, their widowed spouses and families—those who have dedicated their lives to God’s service. In 2016, RMMO raised $1,059,444, and more than 3,443 checks were distributed to recipients and their families.

In this year’s video, we highlight three generous congregations who understand that giving is a gift to the recipient as well as the one who gives. One pastor remarked about an RMMO recipient, “It meant a great deal to him...he didn’t even talk about the financial amount. He was talking about the idea that he was remembered.”

To encourage your congregation to give to RMMO, we have provided a new section in the promotional packet which includes suggested social media posts to use if you have a Facebook page. The Facebook messages link to ABCUSA.org. We also have incorporated color and new design elements into the bulletin inserts to make them stand out for your congregation.

I would like to extend my deepest thanks for your continued support. I urge you and your congregation to join us and share God’s abundance, and do all you can to support this worthy cause.

“But generous people plan to do what is generous, and they stand firm in their generosity.”

Isaiah 32:8 NLT
Set the date

RMMO traditionally takes place the first Sunday in December (Dec. 3 this year), but you may hold the offering at a time that makes the most sense for your congregation. Some churches choose a different Sunday, or receive RMMO as part of a month-long focus on the theme, Generous Congregations.

Set the goal

Setting a specific offering goal helps church members better understand what they are working toward and allows you to celebrate the success of reaching that goal. In the Key Materials section you’ll see we’ve provided a poster for you to set your goal and measure your congregation’s progress. Monitoring this will create a sense of achievement for your congregation and encourage more donations and higher levels of participation.

Create a calendar

In the weeks leading up to your scheduled RMMO, use this guide to create a calendar that works for your congregation. This guide offers ideas for activities during church services, sermons, suggested social media posts and other events that reinforce RMMO’s expression of Generous Congregations.

Introduce the offering

Kick-off RMMO by explaining the offering’s purpose, history and significance, or by showing the video during one of your congregation’s services.
Expressing stories of generosity is one of the most meaningful ways to personalize RMMO for your congregation. Giving thanks, both for the service of retired ministers and missionaries, and for the gifts given by your congregation, fosters a spirit of care and connection within your community.

Questions for Discussion
In what way is generosity manifested in the life of our community?
Why are you inspired to give back?

“It is said that one of Jesus’ great commandments was love: to love one another.”
Rev. Dr. Warren Stewart, First Institutional Baptist Church, Phoenix, AZ

“For over 40 years I’ve been promoting the annual RMMO offering in churches. And now to be on the receiving end is gratifying to say the least. The check you sent helped pay for a much-needed car repair.”
Retired Pastor in Mineral Wells, WV

Recipients
Identify RMMO recipients within your community and ask them to share the significance this support had for them. A recipient story may sound like:

Donors
Identify past donors and ask them to share personal stories of why they gave. Ask them to be messengers and to serve as the catalyst for getting other individuals to tell their stories. Contact your ABC Regional Office for retired pastors and missionaries to invite.
Telling Stories about Generous Congregations

Sharing stories of God’s generosity with your congregation is meaningful and has the ability to resonate in a more impactful way.

Highlight these stories, along with details about your congregation’s participation in RMMO:

• In the Sunday service bulletin
• During the Sunday service
• On the church website or Facebook page
• In the church newsletter
• On posters throughout church facilities

On behalf of the American Baptist Churches USA, MMBB Financial Services is honored to present the Widow’s Mite Award to the South Parkersburg Baptist Church in Parkersburg, West Virginia.

The award is presented each year to a congregation that reflects the spirit and generosity of giving. The South Parkersburg Church, under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Thomas Lipsey, is an outstanding example of those qualities. They truly epitomize our theme of Generous Congregations.

The congregation beautifully sums up their generosity in the following quote, “While there are many ways we can contribute to our local church, we don’t want to forget what may be the most fundamental. We all benefit from the generous financial support of those who have given before us. May the Lord speak to your heart as to what your role is right now in this area of giving.”

“After years of promoting the annual offering and highlighting the church retirees, now I am one of them and deeply appreciative.”

Retired Pastor, Terryville, CT
Social media can be a meaningful way to reach out and foster a spirit of community within your congregation. We encourage you to share information about RMMO to inspire your congregation to give. Below are suggested posts for Facebook and Twitter. Please feel free to edit or modify.

Creating a memorable tradition for your congregation’s RMMO can make the offering more meaningful to members. Some ideas include:

- Prior to collection, have the pastor read a message from a retired minister or missionary who is a member of the congregation.
- Invite a former missionary to come and share stories of their life abroad with the congregation.
- Ask church members to stand and share personal stories.

During the Offering
When to Collect the Offering

The most popular time for collecting RMMO is typically between Thanksgiving and Christmas. As we reflect on those who have encouraged our faith walk we are also inspired to give. Some congregations with successful RMMO traditions suggest:

- Designating the first Sunday in December (Dec. 3 this year) as RMMO Sunday.
- Collecting the RMMO during Christmas Eve services or the Christmas pageant.
- Collecting RMMO during the announcements.
- Setting up online giving through the church’s website to supplement in-person giving.
- Selecting a time that will not compete with too many other offerings, even if it is a smaller window, to draw your congregation’s full attention to the RMMO campaign.

During the Offering
How to Collect the Offering

Creating a memorable tradition for your congregation’s RMMO can make the offering more meaningful to members. Some ideas include:

- Prior to collection, have the pastor read a message from a retired minister or missionary who is a member of the congregation.
- Invite a former missionary to come and share stories of their life abroad with the congregation.
- Ask church members to stand and share personal stories.
RMMO provides financial support for the retired ministers, missionaries and widowed spouses who have helped build our churches and American Baptist witness. Through RMMO, American Baptist churches have an opportunity to highlight the congregation’s love for all of the ways that spiritual leaders have contributed to their lives.

Engage Young People
Use RMMO as an opportunity to teach children, youth and young adults about the service of your church’s current leaders, along with retired ministers and missionaries. Some ideas include:

- Service Work
  - Identify a recipient of RMMO still working to serve God and their ministry
- Sunday School
  - Encourage youth groups to write letters or draw pictures of thanks to ministers or missionaries who have touched their lives or who have retired

Beyond the Offering
Inspiring Engagement + Connection

RMMO is a wonderful opportunity to highlight the personal ministries which demonstrate the ongoing impact that retired ministers and missionaries make in the community. Talk to church members who oversee various ministry programs to uncover personal stories. These may include:

- Meal deliveries to the elderly or a food pantry
- Nursing home visits
- Hospital outreach
- Volunteer programs at homeless shelters
- Prison ministry

“This has been a church that has always stood for meeting the needs in the community. We are a church that loves God and serves our neighbor. That is the motto of our church. Our congregation understands that if we are in a stage of life and time where we can make contributions and attend to the needs of another person, what is better than that?”

Beyond the Offering
Inspired by Generosity

Reconnect with Retirees
RMMO can give your congregation a chance to learn from retired ministers and missionaries. Some may still be active in your church community.
Contact your ABC regional office for suggestions. Some ideas include:
• Special Service or Reception
  Invite a retired minister or missionary to your church to share stories of his or her life and work after regular Sunday morning service
• Guest Sermon
  Invite a retired minister or missionary to deliver a sermon and ask him or her to include stories of their service
• Outreach Visit
  Organize visits to the homes of retired ministers and missionaries in your community

Share Inspiration Year-Round
Lessons of generosity have rich meaning for Christians throughout the year, not only around the time of RMMO.
Some ideas include:
• Weekly Sermons
  Look for ways to include messages of how God’s generosity inspires giving and highlight the contributions of your retired ministers and missionaries in sermons throughout the year

Sample Sermons:
Isaiah 32: 8 (NLT) Theme Scripture
“But generous people plan to do what is generous, and they stand firm in their generosity.”
Our theme scripture text concludes the opening eight verses of Isaiah 32, a prophetic oracle which pointed to a time when a just king shall reign over Israel. The prophet Isaiah conveys the sense that a time is imminent when the unjust shall no longer have the upper hand in government. The new rule will bring respite and relief from those who seek to do evil, who withhold food and drink from the needy and who cheat the poor knowing their complaints are fair. A generous, noble spirit and character will pervade society from the highest quarters, and those who are benevolent will be unstinting in their commitment to establish a posture of compassionate care and giving.

• Could there be a poverty of the spirit in persons who are unwilling to give and care for others? What might that look like?

2 Corinthians 9: 7-12 (NIV)
These familiar verses remind us that giving is a matter of the heart, which for ancient society comprised not only the emotions but also the mind and the will. As he thanks the Corinthians for their generous giving, Apostle Paul observes that giving is an action which is determined by, and springs from, the fullness of one’s innermost being. He further admonishes the Corinthians not to give sparingly because ultimately, giving reflects our thankfulness to and for God’s generous giving, supplying our need so that we can richly bless others.

• If we are unwilling to be generous with that which God gives to us, how are we diminishing the message of the gospel? What message are we sending to God? to others?
Additional Scripture Suggestions

1 Timothy 6:18-19 (NIV)

“Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.”

Colossians 3:12 (NIV)

“Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.”

1 Thessalonians 5:11 (NIV)

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.”

Key Materials

We provided the following materials in this packet to help make collecting RMMO easy for your congregation. These include:

1. Envelopes
   Offering envelopes can be distributed on RMMO Sunday or another day of your choice.

2. Bulletin Inserts
   Three inserts that can be copied and distributed in your Sunday bulletin or weekly newsletter.

3. Poster
   A poster to measure the progress made each week toward meeting your RMMO goal and to inspire participation.

4. DVD and Video Link
   A DVD is included with this Guide or visit www.mmbb.org/RMMOvideo to find a video you can show during service.

5. Social Media Posts
   Refer to pages 10 and 11 in the guide for suggestions.

“We have retired ministers at the church, me being one of them. Last year I egged them on to increase support for the offering and they raised money. I’m hoping that again this year they will raise their gifts for the Retired Ministers and Missionaries. It’s been a help because it is tough financially going through ministry. MMBB has been very supportive of my wife and I in these years of retirement. And so I will do what I can to emphasize this offering.”
