From the ABCUSA Standing Rules

Section 11.1.5: Chairpersons

Except where otherwise provided by the Bylaws or these Standing Rules, the chairperson of each committee or commission of the Board of General Ministries shall be appointed from the membership of the respective committee or commission by the President in consultation with the General Secretary and shall serve until the expiration of the term of the appointing President. When the chairperson is not present, the committee shall elect an acting chairperson for that meeting to serve until the chairperson arrives.

Becoming a Beloved Community Action Group

Description of the Work (Current)

ABC life has welcomed and celebrated the great diversity and gifts that its members bring in the making of the whole. Statistically, ABC is more multi-ethnic than any other Protestant group in the US. While we have affirmed such God-given richness, we still have not attained the spirit of a “beloved community.” What does it mean to be the Body of Christ that values all of its members? How is power shared among its members? The composition of BGM is designed to reflect a “beloved community” in its members but how may we truly function in spirit?

Responsibilities that apply to all commissions, committees, and task forces (entities):

- Know and abide by the duties of your entity
- Attend scheduled meetings and events
- Participate in discussions and decision making
- Advocate for the work of your entity
- Comply with the conflict of interest policy

Skills, experience, and perspectives that add value to this entity (name your top 3)

- Example: Understanding and appreciation of a variety of backgrounds and cultures

Potential benefits of service on this entity (name your top 3)

- Example: Experience in strengthening the capacity of an organization

Communicating ABC Identity Action Group

Description of the Work (Current)

Our ABC Identity can be a positive and a negative all at the same time. Unlike other Christian groups that may have a historical figure or a particular practice that defines them, ABC doesn't seem to have such clear distinctives except the strong affirmation of Baptist principles. Joined together by Baptist principles has included many groups from all walks of life in the making of ABC. Against this reality and the increasing moving away from organized religion in American life, what is "ABC Identity" today? For any group to function effectively, what is needed to communicate ABC identity that would draw us together to do mission and ministry together? This Action Group will continue the ACT on this topic with the hope of identifying findings that would influence the work of BGM such as the national ministers conference and the Orientation to AB Life

Responsibilities that apply to all commissions, committees, and task forces (entities):

- Know and abide by the duties of your entity
- Attend scheduled meetings and events
- Participate in discussions and decision making
- Advocate for the work of your entity

Burma Refugee Commission

Description of the Work (Current)

In 2007, the American Baptist Churches formed a taskforce (now a denominational commission) to address how we might respond to both the increasing number of refugees from Burma seeking resettlement in the US and the persecution of Baptist ethnics and others by the military. This effort brought together 3 main denominational entities: The Office of the General Secretary (head of our communion and denominational spokesperson on issues related to Burma), International Ministries (our arm for global mission initiatives) and the American Baptist Home Mission Society (responsible for refugee resettlement) together with the leaders of the Baptist bodies formed by refugees from Burma in the US that were related to us. The Commission has visited the Baptist churches and affected areas in Burma, met with Aung San Suu Kyi, military leaders, and leaders of the Armed Ethnic Groups in efforts to end the persecution, provide humanitarian aid, and work toward a stable political resolution that would honor the rights of all citizens of Burma in a federal democratic government. Likewise, the commission has visited on several occasions the refugees in the Thai camps and in Malaysia and has worked with UNHCR related to both situations. It has also pursued advocacy with the President, Congress, the State Department and with the UN on matters of humanitarian relief, refugee resettlement, and issues of human rights and religious liberty. In all of this we have worked together with Baptist leaders within Burma and the diaspora community within the US.

Responsibilities that apply to all commissions, committees, and task forces (entities):

- Know and abide by the duties of your entity
- Attend scheduled meetings and events
- Participate in discussions and decision making
- Advocate for the work of your entity
- Comply with the conflict of interest policy

- Opportunity to engage in advocacy work on behalf of the people of Myanmar and the Burma Diaspora

Additional expectations of involvement (name up to 3)

- Openness to travel to Myanmar

- Willingness to engage members of the Burma Diaspora in your community

Emerging Theologians Commission

Description of the Work (Current)

Formed as a taskforce in 2007 and voted as a commission in 2014 to fulfill the charge given by General Secretary Roy Medley: to place theological reflection at the heart of ABC's denominational life; to establish a stronger public theological voice from American Baptist perspectives; to provide opportunities for self-identified American Baptist theologians and emerging theologians, pastor-theologians, and theological educators to network and collaborate together; and to re-establish stronger connections between the denomination and its seminaries and colleges. In addition, the Commission is deeply committed to providing opportunities to engage the multiple, rich, and diverse voices of American Baptist theologies. It seeks to identify and lift up emerging theological voices, establishing an ongoing sense of commitment to ABC among its up-and-coming theologians.

Responsibilities that apply to all commissions, committees, and task forces (entities):

- Know and abide by the duties of your entity
- Attend scheduled meetings and events
- Participate in discussions and decision making

Creation Justice Network

Description of the Work (Current)

The General Secretary committed on behalf of ABCUSA to:

- 1) assist in the development and support of a website for the next 15 months,
- 2) fund a booth at the biennial, which Mevorach, Redfern and Carr would staff and resource,
- 3) name Ian Mevorach as the ABC representative to the national Creation Justice Network, covering his expenses to attend and
- 4) seek funds to assist Chuck Redfern and Ian Mevorach to attend the biennial.

The ABCUSA website will carry information regarding the formation of this network, sharing goals of the network, educational resources with a study guide and inviting people and churches to interact by sharing their own stories, sermon ideas, etc.

To begin to grow the network Ian Mevorach will reach out to African American leaders in the Boston area and contacts will be made through Tom Carr with ABC-related seminars.

In October 2014 former GS Medley met in Boston with three ABC pastors—Ian Mevorach (finishing his PhD at Boston University and starting a new church in MA), Chuck Redfern (writer on creation/justice issues) and Tom Carr (who has been ABC's representative for various creation/justice issues)—who expressed interest in launching a new effort in the form of the "ABC Creation Justice Network" that will lead American Baptists on a journey into ecological consciousness and care for creation. If the network gains strength, the hope is to incorporate, but until that time it will be shepherded by ABCUSA.

Responsibilities that apply to all commissions, committees, and task forces (entities):
