Friday evening, June 26, 2015 "Transformed by the Journey"

Our featured speaker will be Rev. Dr. Amy K. Butler who was called to be the 7th Senior Minister of The Riverside Church in New York City in June 2014. Prior to this position, Butler served Calvary Baptist Church in Washington, D.C., for 11 years. Since it was organized in 1930 by industrialist John D. Rockefeller, the 1,670-member Riverside Church has been a bastion of progressive Christianity. Officially affiliated with both the American Baptist Churches USA and the United Church of Christ, it describes itself as interdenominational. "I've come to believe that the call of God is a strange and beautiful thing. It invites us out of our comfort zones, often into places of fear and unfamiliarity. But I've found that these places are most often the places that give birth to things more beautiful than we could ever imagine," says Butler in her spiritual biography.

Saturday evening, June 27, 2015 "Transformed in the Journey"

Rev. Dr. A. Roy Medley is General Secretary of American Baptist Churches USA (ABCUSA), the pastoral and administrative leader of the 1.3-million-member denomination in over 5200 congregations. Medley's term will conclude on December 31, 2015. In response to the changing cultural context in which the churches in North America live and serve, Dr. Medley has led the denomination in the Transformed by the Spirit initiative. Transformed by the Spirit invites congregations into prayerful discernment and committed action in their communities and the world. "The church cannot live as a gated community," remarks Medley. "A church with a sole goal of privilege and prestige, a church which has forgotten the cross, is a church with no spiritual power." Medley is active in peacemaking and Christian unity and interfaith relations efforts. He currently serves as Chair of the National Council of Churches Governing Board and carries a number of responsibilities with the Baptist World Alliance.

Sunday morning, June 28, 2015 "Transformed through the Journey"

Rev. Dr. Aidsand F. Wright-Riggins III has served as Executive Director of American Baptist Home Mission Societies (ABHMS) since August 1991. He is also the CEO of Judson Press, the publishing arm of American Baptist Churches USA. His passion has led ABHMS to encourage discipleship, engage in mission and seek social justice in the United States and Puerto Rico. "We are to be an incarnate community that affirms that Jesus Christ is Lord," says Wright-Riggins. "In the midst of our cultural, theological, racial and ethnic diversity, we want to exhibit unity as a household of faith." Preaching the Gospel, establishing churches, making disciples and ministering to people in need are fundamental to ABHMS heritage and charter goals. For Wright-Riggins, evangelism and emancipation, spiritual formation and social justice, church planting and community transformation are essential to bringing Christ's presence into our broken world. "I am unapologetically evangelical, unashamedly ecumenical and unabashedly committed to the emancipation of all people from personal and public sin and selfishness. If we can walk in the reality that we are found, free, full and forgiven," Wright-Riggins says, "faithfulness and fruitfulness will be the legacy of our lives and ministry."

Sunday evening, June 28, 2015 "Transformed for the Journey"

Rev. Dr. Don Ng is currently serving as President of American Baptist Churches USA (ABCUSA). Since 1998, he has served as Senior Pastor of the historic First Chinese Baptist Church in San Francisco that was started by the American Baptist Home Mission Societies in 1880. The church has Sunday worship services served by a pastoral staff team ministering to both English and Cantonese-speaking people in Chinatown and the greater Bay Area. Rev. Ng's ABC service includes service on the General Board (now Board of General Ministries), the Executive Committee of the American Baptist Home Mission Societies, and the Executive Committee of the General Board. From 1978-1998, Ng was the National Director of Education for Discipleship, Youth Ministry with the Board of Educational Ministries.
