

Book Reviews

Walk with Generosity: A Devotional Journal by Rev. Sandra Dorsainvil, Associate Executive Minister for Mission & Stewardship, The American Baptist Churches of Massachusetts

This is a 40 day devotional journal for nurturing generosity. Intended for any time of the year rather than a particular liturgical season, Rev. Dorsainvil invites readers to reflect on scripture, to find ways to put their faith into action, and “to ponder, reflect, and sit with God for forty days.” She writes, “Each day offers you an opportunity to be a better disciple, a better servant and a better giver of Truth, Hope and Love.”

Celebrating the Offering by Melvin Amerson and James Amerson

Giving is an act of worship. But so often it is an awkward or minor part of our worship experience. Brothers and colleagues in ministry, Melvin and James Amerson walk us through the biblical foundations for worship through our giving and provide practical resources for deepening the spiritual practice of giving.

At the Crossroads: Leadership Lessons for the Second Half of Life by Clayton Smith & Dave Wilson

The life of stewardship is also the stewardship of life. As we consider entering into or living in retirement, how do we claim God’s purpose for our lives in our service, in our giving, and in our legacy? At the Crossroads is a six-week Bible-based study offering comprehensive, practical help for Christians who are approaching, entering, or already in retirement.