
ABCUSA Call to Prayer for Myanmar 2021

Statements and Correspondence

From the ABCUSA Burma Refugee Commission:

The Burma Refugee Commission (BRC) is a joint effort coordinated out of the ABCUSA Office of General Secretary which includes representatives of the American Baptist Home Mission Societies, International Ministries, the Regional Executive Ministers Council, Burmese Baptist Churches USA, Chin Baptist Churches USA, Chin Association of North America, Kachin Baptist Churches USA, Kachin American Baptist Association, and Karen Baptist Churches USA.

At the formation of the BRC in 2014 (formerly the Burma Refugee Task Force 2007-2013), the priority was in assisting those from the diaspora to resettle in their new places, with a focus on building relations with American Baptists. Advocacy has been an essential function since the beginning with careful consideration to support the full extent of the diaspora population as well as our partners and friends in Myanmar, especially the family members of those living in the U.S.

Recently, the work of the Commission has focused upon advocacy following the political uprising in Myanmar. The Call to Prayer is an opportunity for all American Baptists to learn more about the dire needs of the people of Myanmar, to join in unison prayer for these needs, and to join in advocacy work.

Prior to issuing the Call to Prayer for Myanmar, the BRC sent letters of correspondence including information about our ABC relationship to Myanmar with specific recommendations for action to the following persons. Due to the sensitive nature of the letters, they have not been published here.

Statement of Concern Regarding Recent Events in Myanmar

Updated March 15, 2021

We, the Leadership Council of Coordinators of the Alliance of Asian American Baptist Churches, a group of American Baptist clergy and lay leaders representing Asian American Baptists in the American Baptist Churches/USA hold the citizens of Myanmar, formerly known as Burma, in our daily prayers, and wish to express our position concerning recent events in Myanmar:

1. We stand with citizens of Myanmar and our brothers and sisters in the Burmese diaspora in the United States, including many sister American Baptist ministries. Along with them, we have been horrified, angry, frustrated, and deeply concerned upon hearing of the Myanmar military's state of emergency announcement and coup on February 1, 2021.
2. We denounce the actions taken by the military in removing the duly democratically elected leaders from their rightful positions through the use of intimidation and force.
3. We call for the immediate release of all who have been unlawfully detained and an end to unlawful deaths, night raids, arrests, detentions and break-ins.
4. Further, we call for humanitarian assistance for all who have had to flee their homes as a result of the recent conflict. We urge that the financial and communications infrastructure remain open and in place.
5. In the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, we express our deep concerns that the mass public gatherings and demonstrations in Myanmar will further exacerbate the spread of the virus, even as we support our brothers and sisters in protesting the current situation. We support the Civil Disobedience movement, and pray for safety.
6. Along with our brothers and sisters in the Burmese diaspora in the United States, we call upon all of our brothers and sisters of all backgrounds and nations, to unite with us in publicly condemning this oppressive rule in every way possible and in praying for a peaceful transition to a democratic society.
7. We urge our national and local American Baptist and other church leaders to join us in prayer and in speaking out against all acts of violence, injustice, and to condemn all violations of human rights - from the pulpit, the pew, and all other possible venues.
8. We prayerfully call upon the military to reconsider their actions and move forward with a solution that brings about reconciliation, harmony, peace and the democratic rule of law in Myanmar.

We proclaim the Word of God, which states: “There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus (Gal 3:28 NIV).”

There are many resources for prayer provided by the American Baptist Office of the General Secretary here.

For those who are able to take action in addition to prayer, you can take these steps to help:

Write to the White House to ask for intervention to save lives here.

Write to your elected Congressional representatives to urge support and co-sponsorship of S.Res. 35/H. Res 134 condemning the Burmese military coup. You can do this at 21 Wilberforce Freedom Center.

Write to Senator Ed Markey, ranking member of the Committee of Foreign Relations' Subcommittee on East Asia, the Pacific, and International Cybersecurity Policy. A template for your letter is here.

Donate to the Myanmar Relief Campaign through the Alliance of Asian American Baptist Churches. Please ensure that donations for this purpose are marked “Myanmar Relief.” Your donations are tax deductible and will go directly to help our brothers and sisters in Myanmar who are living without shelter and food in midst of the COVID-19 Pandemic. Donations may be sent securely online here (write on the memo line: Myanmar Relief), or you can send in a check made out to AAABC to:

Greetings in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ, with peace and humility from Myanmar!

First and most importantly – THANK YOU! For your generous love, prayers and support toward the people of Myanmar, as we go through the most difficult time of our lives. I have tried many times to bring myself to sit at the table, focus and write a letter of appreciation, but it seems impossible to concentrate when the cries and chants of young people ring outside my hotel the whole day, as they fight for their rights, their future and against the injustice brought upon them.

I truly believe that because of international prayers from our Baptist family, as well as prayers from our Asia-Pacific community and sisters across Asia, we still have not seen the massive bloodshed and injuries that occurred in previous events.

We know that our living God hears your prayers and is protecting the people of Myanmar from harm and disaster, even though we are walking through the darkest valley imaginable.

The situation on the ground is very fluid and history has proven that it will be a long and arduous march for freedom and democracy. We, the people, need to be united and press on with this struggle for the sake of the next generation, our children and grandchildren.

People with guns think they have the power to intimidate, abuse and rob us from our democratic freedom, but little do they know we have a living God watching over us both day and night, never slumbering.

Please continue with your prayers for "if we ask anything according to His will, HE HEARS US." Your prayers has a lot of impact on all of us here in Myanmar; praising God day by day, not knowing what to expect tomorrow but with the assurance that our Creator is the Alpha and the Omega, fully in control.

Together, we will be able to accomplish our goals. The people of Myanmar can never thank all of you enough for the love and prayers, compassion and support shown to us. Our goal is for a child in Myanmar to able to grow up in a peaceful and stable environment, just like any other child in other parts of the world. God Bless!

At a time when we are challenged by the spread of the Corona virus; when the economy of Myanmar needs a stable political environment for its continued growth; when an estimated one million people in conflict-affected areas in Myanmar are in need of humanitarian assistance, the recent unfolding of the coup brings great concern to the international community.

Open Letter from Community Organizations Calling for Action Regarding Burma to Support Ethnic Nationalities and Prioritize Human Rights

For Immediate Release

February 11, 2021

Media contact: Myra Dahgaypaw, U.S. Campaign for Burma +1 718 207-2556
Moon Nay Li, Kachin Women's Association of Thailand +66 85 625 1912
Naw Wah Ku Shee, Karen Support Peace Network +66 86 118 2261

(Washington, DC, February 11, 2021) – Today, 165 ethnic community organizations in Burma and from around the world sent a letter to the member and observer states of the United Nations Human Rights Council to call on their support for ethnic minorities and to prioritize human rights after the illegal military coup that occurred on February 1, 2021.

Human rights violations, war crimes, crimes against humanity, and mass atrocities committed by the Burma Army with impunity are well documented by community based organizations, civil society organizations on the ground, UN Rapporteurs, INGOs, and many others. For decades, the Burma Army waged campaigns of violence and executed clearance operations against the ethnic minorities, while inciting conflict with ethnic armed organizations. The extreme amount of abuses perpetrated by the Burma Army should encourage the member and observer states of the United Nations Human Rights Council to protest the Burma Army's long-standing human rights violations and to act with a sense of urgency in protecting the ethnic minorities.

While much of the international community's attention is focused on central Burma, the ongoing militarization continues to increase in ethnic states. The country's ethnic communities are still directly affected by the military coup. After the National League of Democracy came into power, it was clear the Burma Army still maintained its hold on the country and the brutal suffering of ethnic minorities continued without sufficient action from the international community. The fear of violence and the unknown continues to grow amongst the ethnic communities after the recent coup d'etat. The UNHRC needs to use their power and influence to ensure that the Burma Army ceases all forms of violence while taking decisive action to guarantee the safety of ethnic minorities and prevent further collapse of the situation.

"On Friday, as the UN Human Rights Council convenes to discuss the current state of affairs in Burma, it is important that the UNHRC remember the impacted communities who are suffering human rights abuses at the hands of the Burma Army. The UNHRC cannot forget that the military has targeted all ethnic nationalities for decades. In 2019, the UNHRC commissioned an independent fact-finding report that found that Burma's ethnic minorities universally experience human rights violations and severe discrimination at the hands of the very same Burmese military who staged the coup. The UNHRC should take the crimes of the Burma Army seriously and hold them accountable," said Myra Dahgaypaw.

After years of human rights abuses and no justice, the people of Burma deserve peace. Ensuring political stability, security, and democracy necessitates holding the Burma Army accountable for their crimes.

Pastoral letter on the Situation in Myanmar

To:

The Members of the World Council of Churches (WCC) and the Christian Conference of Asia (CCA) member churches in Myanmar, and the Myanmar Council of Churches

Dear brothers and sisters,

The World Council of Churches (WCC) and the Christian Conference of Asia (CCA) observe with alarm and great sadness the recent developments in Myanmar, which resulted in a sharp reversal of years of reforms for the democratic enfranchisement of Myanmar's people. It is with profound concern that we follow the current developments in your country, especially the abrupt resumption of military rule, overturning the outcome of elections on 8 November 2020, as well as the detention of key political and pro-democracy representatives and the escalation of the national situation to the state of emergency. We pray that the recent development will not lead to an escalation of violence and suffering in your country.

We urge a swift and peaceful return to the path of democracy, and appeal for the human rights and freedoms – including the freedom of religion or belief – of all Myanmar's people to be fully respected and protected.

We hold the churches and communities of Myanmar in prayer and solidarity, as you seek to provide counsel and comfort to your people in this time of deep anxiety and uncertainty for the future. We pray that the one who has given us "a new birth into a living hope" (1 Peter 1:3) will sustain and strengthen you in your efforts to be prophetic witnesses at a time such as this. We pray that you will be strengthened and supported in your ministry and witness for peace, justice and human dignity. It is our fervent prayer and hope that all parties involved to engage in meaningful and constructive dialogue which will lead to lasting peace and reconciliation in Myanmar.

In a spirit of solidarity we offer you the assurance of our continued prayers and support. May God almighty help us to be courageous and take refuge in the words from the second letter to the Thessalonians: "Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word," (2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17).

BURMA: Letter to UN Human Right Council Concerning Ethnic Minorities

February 11, 2021

To: Member and Observer States of the United Nations Human Rights Council Regarding the Crisis in Burma

Re: Open Letter from Community Organizations Calling for Action Regarding Burma to Support Ethnic Nationalities and Prioritize Human Rights

Dear Excellences,

We are writing to express our deep concern regarding the continuing attacks and atrocities committed against ethnic minorities in Burma by the Burma military (Burma Army), the brazen coup d'état executed by the Burma Army on February 1 to subvert the results of a free and fair election and the Burma Army's retaliation against peaceful protesters since February 1.

The Burma Army's coup and subsequent violent crackdown on peaceful protesters demonstrate to the world what ethnic minorities have learned from decades of a brutal campaign against them: The Burma Army operates with complete autonomy and is guided only by its own self-interest. We urge the international community to act immediately and decisively to protest the Burma Army's long-standing and serious violations of the human rights of the people of Burma and to protect ethnic minorities and peaceful demonstrators exercising their fundamental human rights.

Specifically, we would like to draw your attention to the atrocities routinely committed against ethnic groups for decades and which continue unabated. Since January 1 of this year, the Burma Army has displaced over 5326 Karen people, after shelling villages and blocking humanitarian aid. Approximately 130,000 Rohingya continue to fear for their lives as Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs) in Rakhine state; fighting incited by the Burma Army has displaced close to 236,000 Rakhine civilians since 2018, and, on January 25, IDPs in Rakhine state were ordered to leave the camps sheltering them and relocate with no place to go. Conflict in Rakhine state has bled into neighboring Chin state, where more than 60,000 Chin IDPs have fled violence. In Burma's Shan state, clashes led to the destruction and displacement of 1,000 villagers December 2020. As of January 2021, over 104,010 in Kachin and northern Shan state remain in displacement camps nearly a decade after being forcibly driven from their homes due to a ceasefire broken by the Burma Army. Though the Burma Army denied responsibility for the human rights violations documented by the CSOs on the ground, UN, international organizations and many others have proven otherwise. The Army also continues to forcibly conscript villagers as porters and guides, a practice often linked to other violations, including torture and sexual abuses as well as gender-based violence. While there may be less sounds of the guns, in Karenni state, the Burma Army has confiscated some 50,000 acres of land from ethnic Karenni people, even prosecuting farmers who attempted to cultivate their stolen land. Similar issues exist in Mon state, where a single township reported over 7,000 acres being confiscated by the Burma Army. It is evident that the Burma Army commits a multitude of violations, ranging from violence and atrocities to land-grabbing and forced displacement.

This laundry list of atrocities demonstrates that the international community must act now to protect lives in Burma, not only the lives of brave protesters who are exercising their fundamental human rights but also those of ethnic minorities who are threatened every day by military actions.

We, 165 Burma's ethnic organizations, urge Member and Observer States of the UN Human Rights Council in your February 12th Special Session on the human rights implications of the crisis in Myanmar to adopt a Resolution to:

1. Establish immediate and regular monitoring and evaluation of the situation in Burma, including by dispatching a delegation to Burma (including the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar) to observe, document and report on the situation and by requiring regular reporting to the Human Rights Council and other UN mechanisms;

BURMA: Letter to UN Human Right Council Concerning Ethnic Minorities

2. Provide immediate humanitarian aid and direct cross-border assistance to adequately address the humanitarian needs of all IDPs and refugees suffering from ongoing Burma Army militarization and offensives;
3. Suspend all political and financial support to the Burma Army and the peace process, including the Joint Peace Fund;
4. Impose immediate sanctions against the Burma Army, both individually and as an institution, and against military-owned and -controlled companies and their affiliates, as recommended by the UN Independent International Fact-Finding Mission on Myanmar;
5. Support the establishment of a comprehensive response to ensure long-term federal democratic and human rights change in the country, including by ensuring support towards constitutional change that would bring the military under civilian control and ensure accountability for grave human rights violations.

Additionally, we call on the United Nations, Human Rights Council and Member and Observer States, both collectively and individually, to pressure the Burma Army to:

1. Stop offensives throughout the country, pull back troops in ethnic areas, respect the Nationwide Ceasefire Agreement and proceed with political or tripartite dialogue;
2. Immediately allow all humanitarian aid to affected areas, including ethnic areas;
3. Immediately and unconditionally release State Counsellor Suu Kyi, President Win Myint and all arbitrarily detained political prisoners, including those who won seats in the recent 2020 election;
4. Cease all violence and use of force in response to protests, lift all declarations of Martial Law, curfews and other restrictions imposed under Section 144 of the Criminal Procedures Act and allow for the full exercise of the fundamental right to freedom of expression, association and peaceful assembly;
5. Allow unrestricted access throughout Burma to all internet services, media platforms and other forms of communications;
6. Allow the parliament elected by the will of the people in November 2020 to take office and allow elected representatives to fulfil their mandate without impediment.

We thank you for your immediate attention to this urgent matter.

CYONA: Protest Against Myanmar Military (PAMM) at Washington D.C. Statement

Washington D.C. (February 3, 2021) - The Chin Youth Organization of North American denounces the military coup in Myanmar and the arrest of State Counsellor Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, President U Win Myint, elected officials, and other civilian leaders. This coup d'état occurred as elected officials were preparing for the next parliamentary session.

On Monday, February 8, at 11:00 AM, the Burmese community across the nation will be protesting at Washington Monument Ground (2 15th St. NW, Washington, DC 20024) to express solidarity with the people of Myanmar and express our grievances. There has been local and statewide protests but this will be the first national level protest against the Myanmar military.

We demand that the military reverses their actions and immediately releases all detainees including Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and other leading members of her party and defend Myanmar's free, fair, and credible election, and take a leading role in the restoration of democratic rule in Myanmar. We also ask that the United States governmental officials condemn the military's action seize of power and demand the release of all detainees.

We urge the international community to gather in a unified response that condemns the military's action to seize power against the will of the people, expressed in the recent elections. All are invited to join us in supporting the people of Myanmar. We hope that through this assembly, we draw international attention to the issues in Myanmar. We encourage Burmese Americans and all allies to stay engaged with what is happening in Myanmar and continue voicing your support to elected representatives.

Statement by European Karen Network,

Thursday 11 February 2021

Karen in Europe Express Solidarity With Mass Protests in Karen State.

Tens of Thousands call For Withdrawal of Burma Army and an end to military rule

On Karen National Day, 11 February, the European Karen Network joins Karen people all over the world in renewing our calls for peace, national equality, and self-determination. We call on the Burmese Army to immediately withdraw their troops from our Karen areas and stop their attacks against our Karen people.

In Karen State, tens of thousands of Karen people from both Burmese government-controlled areas and Karen National Union areas join hands together, united in opposing the occupation of Karen lands by the Burmese military, and opposing the coup. Protesters demand the establishment of a genuine federal democratic Burma. Villagers in Taw Oo (Taungoo) areas hold protests in several locations in front of the Burmese Army's camps.

73 years ago on 11 February, our Karen people, suffering discrimination and inequality, took to the streets peacefully protesting. We demanded national equality and self-determination with our calls:

1. Give us Karen State, at once! (We want Freedom);
2. Show Karen one Kyat, Burman one Kyat, at once! (We want equality & democratic rights);
3. We don't want communal strife! (We want communal harmony);
4. We don't want civil war! (We want peace).

Our peaceful protests were met with bullets, bombs and repression.

Our Karen people have been suffering for decades under Burmese governments, during periods of civilian governments and military dictatorships. Many of us have been forced to flee our homes, hiding as displaced people in the jungle. Hundreds of thousands now live in refugee camps along the border of Thailand, or have had to find new homes all over the world. We all just want to go back home.

Currently, over 5,000 Karen people are hiding in the jungle without food, medicine and shelter, following attacks by the Burmese Army since December 2020. Humanitarian aid has long been restricted in these areas by the Burmese authorities. These are war crimes and crimes against humanity and must be met by strong international action to end impunity and prevent further abuses.

We call on the international community to listen to the voices of these grassroots people by demanding the Burmese military immediately stop their attacks and withdraw their troops in Karen and all ethnic areas. Donor governments should prioritise providing life-saving aid to internally displaced people through cross-border mechanisms.

We stand in solidarity with those resisting the military coup. All the people of Burma must work together for peace, human rights and a federal democracy in our country

G7 Foreign Ministers' Statement on Burma

Obtained from the U.S. Department of State website

The text of the following statement was released by the G7 foreign ministers of Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom and the United States of America and the High Representative of the European Union can be found here: https://www.state.gov/g7-foreign-ministers-statement-on-burma/?fbclid=IwAR1bATiuKSxseJy2z_1UQVj7w9rglGoUpzh8t45cexCeQYK6nJn-VtDalCQ

Begin Text:

We, the G7 Foreign Ministers of Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom and the United States of America and the High Representative of the European Union firmly condemn violence committed by Myanmar's security forces against peaceful protests. We offer condolences for the loss of life. The military and the police must exercise utmost restraint and respect human rights and international law. Use of live ammunition against unarmed people is unacceptable. Anyone responding to peaceful protests with violence must be held to account.

We condemn the intimidation and oppression of those opposing the coup. We raise our concern at the crackdown on freedom of expression, including through the internet blackout and draconian changes to the law that repress free speech. The systematic targeting of protesters, doctors, civil society and journalists must stop, and the state of emergency must be revoked. We continue to call for full humanitarian access to support the most vulnerable.

We remain united in condemning the coup in Myanmar. We call again for the immediate and unconditional release of those detained arbitrarily, including State Counsellor Aung San Suu Kyi and President Win Myint, and continue to stand with the people of Myanmar in their quest for democracy and freedom.

13th February 2021

Keys request to UN and International Community on Humanitarian Situation Regarding Military Coup in Myanmar on 1st Feb 2021 (8th February 2021)

Since early morning of 1st February 2021, the legitimate civilian government's leaders including the State Counsellor Daw Aung San Su Kyi and President U Win Myint and the people's representatives who were officially and democratically elected during November 2020 election, have been detained by the Myanmar Military, taking over the government and declaring that the country will be under state of emergency for one year. The Joint Strategy Team (JST)¹ and the Internally Displaced People from Kachin and Northern Shan States are deeply concerned with these events.

On 2nd February 2021, Northern Commander met with religious leaders in Myitkyina and explained their intentions under this coup, and asked them to convey the messages to their respective church members.

The military coup is severely affecting to the IDPs communities in Kachin and Northern Shan states. The military are taking more positions with armed troops and artillery, even in towns; and it has impacted on the transportation and movement of local people including IDPs. The civilian population is very worried, fearing that armed clashes will occur, particularly in Northern Shan State.

Accessing humanitarian assistance has been constrained since 1st February and it is a big concern in the current political setting, due to the increasing restrictions on movements, transportation, communications, banking system, etc. In some IDPs camps, the food support has covered only for January and the transportation to provide food particularly to Non-Government Controlled areas is a major concern and challenge. Moreover, IDPs are very confused on their plans of their possible Return and Resettlement and are very worried that they will be intimidated and pushed to return or resettle without any assistance or protection of their rights.

STATEMENT AND URGENT REQUESTS:

Considering these dire circumstances, the JST makes the following statement and urgent requests to all those committed with Human Dignity and Human Rights and all the Stakeholders involved in this crisis:

¹ JST is a group of committed, professional Humanitarian local NGOs providing comprehensive, strategic, principled humanitarian assistance to people affected by armed conflict in Kachin and Northern Shan States. JST has a long trajectory in strategizing and delivering principled humanitarian assistance in complex contexts and it is highly knowledgeable and exposed to the International Humanitarian System.

1. JST opposes to all sorts of forceful mean of transfer of power and we urge to respect and restore immediately the democratically elected government.
2. International Humanitarian Law must be respected and safe and unimpeded Humanitarian access for the organizations delivering humanitarian and COVID-19 related assistance is guaranteed. So that IDPs' rights are protected and they receive the humanitarian support required.
3. The United Nations (UN) and the international community must stand firm with the people of Myanmar in these circumstances, under the spirit of the UN charter and with a principled approach; ensuring that all UN agencies, offices and representatives protect the rights of Myanmar citizens and particularly the most vulnerable ones, as IDPs including Kachin, Northern Shan, Rakhine, Karan, Chin states, etc.
