Imagine Unity

1. In the afternoon a “Welcome Session” opened with videos of greetings from American Baptist Churches USA (ABCUSA) pastors and congregations, followed by a silent prayer to remember all of the lives lost and those adversely impacted in this past year by COVID-19 and race-based violence. The “Welcome Session” provided an overview of the online experience for the 2021 Biennial Mission Summit.
2. At 7:00 PM, Thursday, June 24, 2021 Karen Podsiadly, President of American Baptist Churches USA, called to order the 2021 Biennial Mission Summit. Karen Podsiadly announced that as of 5:00 PM today 463 participants registered and 445 delegates registered, setting the quorum for conduct of business at 148. While only delegates may vote on motions, all attendees are welcome to attend the business session on Friday.
3. Karen Podsiadly announced that the information shared throughout our time together, especially during the Sunday afternoon business session, will constitute the information related to the ABCUSA budget and actions of the Board of General Ministries.

He moved to adopt the Rules of Procedure for the conduct of business at the 2021 Biennial Mission Summit meeting of delegates. 7. Karen Podsiadly welcomed everyone to the 2021 Biennial Mission Summit.
8. The opening worship service focused on imagining unity, based on Galatians 3:26-29, as we celebrate coming together as an American Baptist family, as the Body of Christ. This service included upbeat and diverse worship from across the country, including Puerto Rico, moments of prayer and response, and a celebration of the Lord's Supper. Communion was led by Rev. Dr. C. Jeff Woods, Interim General Secretary; Karen Podsiadly, ABCUSA President; and Rev. Dr. Marie Onwubuariri, Associate General Secretary for Mission Resource Development. (See appendix 1; Imagine Unity, Order of Worship, Thursday, June 24, 2021.)
9. The National Executive Council (NEC) challenged one another to identify "silver linings" in their respective organizations. Each of the NEC shared "silver linings" that came out of this time of the global pandemic that caused hardship for so many, lifting up the ways in which they were able to continue in their work and maintaining connections with one another. The NEC consists of:

Friday Evening Gathering, June 25, 2021

Worship 7:00-8:00 PM

Imagine Healing

22. This year in particular, we recognize the need for healing in our churches, communities, nation, and the world. The worship for Friday evening came with the invitation to imagine and experience God's healing spirit in our lives with the theme Imagine Healing, focusing on the scripture read from Jeremiah 8:18-22. Through virtual dance, and a time for prayers of the people, the service served to acknowledge the hurt in our midst and celebrate the balm that heals us all. (See appendix 2; Imagine Healing, Order of Worship, Friday, June 25, 2021.)

23. Rev. Dr. Winterbourne Harrison-Jones preached on the theme of healing. Dr. Harrison-Jones is the esteemed Senior Pastor of the historic Witherspoon Presbyterian Church of Indianapolis, Indiana.
24. The offering this evening went to support anti-racism work impacting the individual, congregational, and instructional levels of the American Baptist Churches USA.

Saturday Evening Gathering, June 26, 2021

Worship 7:00-8:00 PM

Imagine Hope

25. We are a people of hope and a Body of Christ who celebrate what God can do through us and in our midst. The closing worship imagined hope through children and youth leading portions of the worship, through a virtual choir inviting us into a time of praise, and through prayer of thanksgiving for the imaginative hope that we feel. (See appendix 3; Imagine Hope, Order of Worship, Saturday June 26, 2021.)
26. Rev. Dr. Brianna Parker preached on the theme of imagine hope based on the scripture from Ephesians 3:20-21. Dr. Parker is the Founding Curator of the Black Millennial Café which is a resource for persons and institutions interested in authentic millennials engagement.
27. The offering this evening was collected in memory of Helen Barrett-Montgomery, who became the first woman President of our denomination, 100 years ago. Funds collected this evening will support women in ministry by providing scholarships to the “Celebrating Ministering Women: Radical. Redeemed. Ready.” conference held next summer in Green Lake, Wisconsin.
28. The service ended with the announcement of the 2023 Biennial Mission Summit to be held in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

This is a draft of the minutes from the 2021 Biennial Mission Summit Online Experience. These minutes are not official until voted on at the 2023 Biennial Mission Summit.

Prayer of Confession

Rev. Dr. Marie Onwubuariri, ABCUSA Associate General Secretary for Mission Resource Development

Prayer of Confession

God of mercy,
we come celebrating our unity,
but we confess the many ways
that we are divided.
Our nationality, ethnic origin, economic status,
gender, age, and musical preferences
all too often obscure the common calling we share in Christ’s name.
May our common identity as your children and our communal witness to Christ bind us together in your name.
Forgive our tendency toward separation and division,
and remind us that we are your Easter people.

Assurance

When we walk in the light of Christ,
we have fellowship with one another.
When we confess our sins,
the One who is faithful and just forgives our sins
and cleanses us from all unrighteousness.
For in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ,
God has showered mercy upon the entire world. Amen.

Centering Moment

Read by Rev. Dr. Zina Jacque, Community Church of Barrington

“We Lay Bare all that We Are” (from Howard Thurman’s Meditations of the Heart)

Our God, we turn to Thee in the quietness of this meditation period. It is but natural that we expose to Thee the things in us that seem most worthy and good that we may delight Thy Spirit and joy Thy Heart. The unworthy and the ugly things in us we almost instinctively seek to hide, to cover up, that we may seem pleasing in Thy Sight. But deep within us we know that this is not enough. We know that somehow we must be totally exposed to Thee, holding back nothing, seeking refuge behind no protecting screen or darkening shadows. We do not keep back the unsightly from Thee because we cannot trust Thee, dare not run the risk, but because we cannot deny the urge to offer in prayer the best that is in us. Teach us to know that Thy love is so whole and so healing that nothing less than all of us can rise to meet Thine all-encompassing care. Teach us to share with Thee the good and the bad in us, the ugly and the beautiful, the clean and the sordid, the success and the failure — all, everything complete in every part. With penitence for fumbings, failures, ignorances and sins; with thanksgiving for directness, successes, knowledge and rightness, we lay bare all that we are to Thy love and Thy understanding, O God our Creator.

God Most High,

Before your son fed the multitudes, he first gave thanks. Before he raised his friend Lazarus, he first gave thanks, that all might know your glory. And so, as we are blessed to do your works in the world, that all might know your glory, we give you thanks and praise.

For the vision of this community gathered virtually for our Biennial, and for the commitment and dedication of all who have served, led, preached, and worshipped together,
We give you thanks and praise, O Lord.

For the ways in which we care for one another, support one another on the journey of life, give strength to one another, and live in the tensions of community with one another,
We give you thanks and praise, O Lord.

For the opportunity and desire to worship you faithfully and vibrantly, hearing your Word, singing your praise, and seeking your strength,
We give you thanks and praise, O Lord.

For a commitment to remain true to your Word in a world of confusing and conflicting voices,
We give you thanks and praise, O Lord.

For hope in the midst of global reckonings like we've never seen before, for healing, for the strength of your Spirit and your sustaining and nurturing presence,
We give you thanks and praise, O Lord.

For the grace to serve in the model of Christ: feeding the poor, healing the sick, lifting the broken, aiding the endangered, and fighting for justice on behalf of the marginalized and vulnerable,
We give you thanks and praise, O Lord.

Holy One,
God of unlimited possibilities,
open us to your work anew,
fill us with your imagination
and breathe into us the breath of life.
In Christ we pray. Amen
